Brief Essay

Use full sentences to answer the following.

How has the advent of the automobile changed society? In your discussion, include a description of transportation before the automobile. Include a description of what must be done to design and produce automobiles. Describe how life changed when widespread automobile use came about. Finally, give a description of current automobile trends and how they will affect our lives. Your essay must be at least 10 sentences long. Even if you worked in a group, your essay must be your own work. Copied essays will receive reduced HW points and no portfolio points.
